The Walrus and The Carpenter

Answers:

1) D
2) C
3) D - An adverb is a word that describes how an action is carried out. The moon shone (the action) sulkily.
4) B
5) C
6) D - A preposition is a word that tells you where or when something is in relation to something else. No birds flew overhead (above the narrator).
7) A
8) C
9) B
10) D
11) C
12) E - A subordinating conjunction is a word, or words, used to add additional information to the main clause. 'It was the middle of the night' is the subordinating clause.
13) B - A conjunction is a word, or words, used to connect two clauses together. 'And shed a bitter tear' is the second clause in the sentence.
14) D - A subordinating conjunction is a word, or words, used to add additional information to the main clause.
15) C
16) E
17) E